Park Hotel Tokyo [Tokyo, Japan]

Indulge in a Radiant Summer Afternoon Tea

An Exquisite Tropical Escape with Sweets, Tea, and Art

Tokyo, Japan – From June 1 to August 31, 2025, Park Hotel Tokyo's restaurant, Art Colors Dining, will host the Summer Resort Afternoon Tea. Inspired by the vibrant essence of a summer getaway, this exclusive experience features a three-tiered stand adorned with dazzling sweets and savories. Guests can enjoy delights such as a sky-hued lime and salt macaron and a citrus tart inspired by tropical islands, all showcasing bright colors and refreshing flavors that evoke the season's charm.

To complement the selection, the tea menu has been carefully curated to enhance the pairing with sweets. Guests can choose from a variety of 18 beverages, including fruity and aromatic teas, caffeine-free herbal infusions, classic black teas, and coffee. Unlimited refills and the option to switch tea leaves ensure a personalized and indulgent experience.

Adding to the immersive ambiance, Park Hotel Tokyo boasts a collection of over 400 art pieces displayed throughout the property, transforming the space into a gallery-like environment. Dining guests are invited to explore these artworks freely, making their visit a multi-sensory experience that engages both taste and sight.

Top Three Promotional Highlights

- A sophisticated selection of tropical-inspired sweets and savory delights
- Enjoy unlimited drinks from a selection of 18 types with the option to change tea leaves
- The hotel exhibits more than 400 pieces of art, and dining guests are free to enjoy the art

About Park Hotel Tokyo

Park Hotel Tokyo is a sister hotel of Shiba Park Hotel, which was established in 1948. Located on the 25th to 34th floors of the Shiodome Media Tower, it offers a spectacular view of Tokyo Tower and Mount Fuji. The hotel has 268 guest rooms, 47 of which are 'Artist Rooms' where artists have painted the walls. These 'Artist Rooms' are part of a project conceived to experience the aesthetic sense of Japan, and have won the Excellence Award in the Japan Tourism Awards. Over 400 pieces of art are displayed in the lobby and corridors. Art events such as tea ceremonies and painting experiences are also held.
